Belmont Fire Department Responds to Electrical Incident

At 9:48 am on April 8, 2025 the Belmont Fire Department responded to the report of electrical workers injured in the parking lot of the Belmont High School at 221 Concord Ave. Upon arrival firefighters found two injured electrical workers that had been working in a manhole when an accident occurred. The workers were treated and transported to Massachusetts General Hospital by Belmont Fire Rescue and Professional EMS. The scene is safe and the Massachusetts Department of Labor Standards has been contacted to investigate the accident.
